CHAPTER 114—S. F. No. 106.

An Act to amend chapter 328 of the Laws of 1905, being an act entitled: An act providing for liens on personal property in certain cases and for the enforcement thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. That section 1 of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows :

Liens for storage for personal property.—Section 1. Whoever at the request of the owner or legal possessor of any personal property shall store or care for or contribute in any of the modes mentioned in the next section to its preservation, care, or to the enhancement of its value, shall have a lien upon such property for the price or value of such storage, care or contribution, and for any legal charges against the same paid by such person to any other person, and the right to retain the property in his possession until such lien is lawfully discharged; but a voluntary surrender of possession shall extinguish the lien herein given.

Sec. 2. That section 2 of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows :

Sec. 2. Such lien and right of detainer shall exist for:

1. Transporting property from one place to another as a common carrier or otherwise;
2. Keeping or storing property as a warehouseman or other bailee;
3. Keeping, feeding, pasturing, or otherwise caring for domestic animals or other beasts, including medical or surgical treatment thereof and shoeing the same;
4. Making, altering or repairing any article, or expending any labor, skill or material thereon.

Such liens shall embrace all lawful charges against such property paid to any other person by the person claiming such lien, and the price or value of such care, storage or contribution and all reasonable disbursements occasioned by the detention or sale of the property.

Sec. 3. That section 3 of the said act shall be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. If any sum secured by such lien be not paid within ninety days after it becomes due, the lien holder may sell the property and out of the proceeds of such sale there shall be paid, first, the disbursements aforesaid, and, the second, all charges against said property paid by such person to any other person, and, third, the total indebtedness then secured by the lien. The remainder, if any, shall be paid on demand to the owner or other person entitled thereto.

Sec. 4. That section 4 of said act shall be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. The sale herein provided for shall be made at public auction between 9 o'clock in the morning and 5 o'clock in the afternoon in the county where the property or some part thereof is situated. A notice stating the time and place of sale, the amount which will be due on the date of sale exclusive of the expenses of advertising and sale, and the grounds of the lien, giving a general description of the property to be sold, shall be served personally upon the owner of the property if he can be found within the county in which said property is stored, and if he cannot, then it shall be mailed to the owner thereof at least three weeks before the time fixed for such sale if the place of residence or postoffice address of such owner is known to him or with due diligence can be learned by the person claiming such lien, and shall be published once in each week for three successive weeks in a newspaper printed and published in the county where said property or some part thereof is situated, the last publication of such notice to be at least one week prior to the date of sale; or, if there is no newspaper printed and published in the county, then said notice of sale shall be posted in three of the most public places in the county at least three weeks before the time of sale. In case neither the place of residence nor the postoffice address of such owner is known to the person claiming such lien and cannot with reasonable diligence be learned, the publication or posting of notice as herein provided shall be sufficient to authorize such sale.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 5, 1907.

CHAPTER 115—S. F. No. 36.

An Act to amend sections 2266 and 2276 of chapter 34 of the Revised Laws of 1905, relating to printing commission and publication of Session Laws and indexes therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Session laws to be indexed by secretary of state and attorney general.—Section 1. That section 2266 of chapter 34 of the Revised Laws of 1905, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

2266. State Printer—Qualifications—Duties—Salary. The state printer shall be a man experienced in the printing trade, and competent to keep the records and accounts of the commission. He shall be the custodian of all materials purchased by the commission for printing and binding purposes, and of all printed matter delivered to the state, and have charge of the distribution of both; keep an account of all such purchases and deliveries, showing the amount and cost thereof, and a record of the cost of all printing and binding done for the respective departments and officials of the state; supervise all such printing and binding, handle the copy therefor, and prepare indexes for the volumes of executive docu-
