CHAPTER 173—H. F. No. 1088.

³ C 173
- - 235 An Act giving county commissioners in counties of 200,000 inhabitants or over supervision over certain public highways or roads therein.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

County board may extend, change or alter streets and roads.—Section 1. That in any county of this state having 200,000 inhabitants or over, or which may hereafter have 200,000 inhabitants or over, the county commissioners thereof are hereby authorized and empowered to extend any street or avenue beyond the city or village limits of any city or village in such county to connect with any road or highway in any adjoining county, which extension, however, shall not exceed one mile in length; and said county commissioners are given full power to change, alter, improve or repair such extension of road within such county, and to appropriate such sum or sums of money from the county treasury of such county as they may deem advisable therefor; provided, that in no case shall the location of such road wherewith such extension shall be connected, be changed at the point where the same now cross the county line between such county and such adjacent county or counties.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 12, 1907.
