CHAPTER 234—H. F. No. 328.

An Act to amend section one (1) of chapter one hundred and four (104) of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year one thousand nine hundred and five (1905), relating to jurisdiction of justices of the peace.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Jurisdiction of justice courts.—Section 1. That the fourth clause of section one (1) of chapter one hundred and four (104) of the General Laws of Minnesota for the year one thousand nine hundred and five (1905) be amended so as to read as follows:

Fourth. To cause to come before them persons who are charged with committing any criminal offense and commit them to jail, or bail them, as the case may require; provided, however, that no justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction of any offenses committed within the limits of any city or village wherein a municipal court is organized and existing, but such offenses, otherwise cognizable by justices of the peace, and those arising under the charter ordinances or by-laws of the city or village shall be examined or tried by the municipal court therein existing; provided that this act shall not apply to any cities or villages having justice of the peace courts established by home rule charter, nor to territory within one-half mile of the outer limits of the state fair grounds.

Approved April 18, 1907.
