

1762. Same—Adulteration. The sale of adulterated spices and condiments is prohibited and for the purpose of this chapter a spice or condiment shall be deemed adulterated:

(1) If it be mixed or packed with other articles as to decrease its strength or purity; or

(2) If any normal constituent thereof has been either in whole or in part abstracted; or

(3) If it be an imitation of the article named upon the label; or

(4) If it be colored, powdered or treated in any manner whereby damage or inferiority is concealed, or whereby the quality, quantity or value is misrepresented.

No person shall sell any spice or condiment unless each receptacle or package in which the same is kept for sale or sold, shall have securely affixed upon the side thereof, a label, upon the outside face of which shall be printed in plain, conspicuous, legible type, the net weight of the contents of such receptacle or package; and such labels shall also contain the name and address of the manufacturer or packer of such spice or condiment.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 18, 1907.

CHAPTER 238—H. F. No. 537.

An Act amending section two (2) of chapter ninety-three (93), General Laws of 1905, relating to the formation of corporations to negotiate and sell mortgages on farm lands and to issue debentures thereon.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Who have paid up capital of $40,000.—Section 1. That section two (2) of chapter ninety-three (93), General Laws of 1905, be amended so that said section will read as follows:

“Section 2. Such corporation shall have a paid up capital of at least forty thousand dollars ($40,000), and the word ‘debenture’ shall be part of its corporate name.”

Approved April 18, 1907.
