- - 187

An Act to restore full rights and citizenship to all persons who have been or may be convicted of a felony and sentenced to jail or to pay a fine, and who have served or shall serve such sentence, or who have paid or shall pay such fine.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Restoring rights of citizenship.—Section 1. All persons residing or having their domicile in the state of Minnesota, who have heretofore been convicted of a felony and sentenced by a court of this state to pay a fine for such offense or to be confined in a county jail, for such offense, and who have paid and satisfied such fine or served such sentence shall be restored to all their civil rights and to full citizenship with full right to vote and hold office, the same as if such conviction and sentence had not taken place, in the manner hereinafter provided. Before such restoration to civil rights shall take effect such person or persons shall at the end of one year from the date of the judgment thereof or at any time thereafter first apply to the district court where such person or persons may reside and produce before such judge three witnesses to testify to his or her good character during the time since such conviction, and if said judge shall be satisfied of such good character he shall issue an order restoring such party to all civil rights, which order shall be filed with the clerk of said court; thereupon said restoration to civil rights shall take effect and be in full force.

Sec. 2. All persons who shall hereafter be convicted of a felony in any court of this state and sentenced to jail or to pay a fine therefor and who shall serve such sentence or pay such fine, upon complying with the provisions of section 1 of
