CHAPTER 473—H. F. No. 1013.

An Act to authorize the construction of a bridge across the St. Louis river from a point within the county of St. Louis in this state to a point within the county of Douglas in the State of Wisconsin.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Construction and maintenance.—Section 1. The County of St. Louis and the City of Duluth, or either of them, are hereby authorized to provide and appropriate money for and to construct and maintain a foot and wagon bridge across the St. Louis river from a point at or near the intersection of Cherokee street and One Hundred and Thirty-fifth avenue west, in the said City of Duluth, to a point on the Wisconsin shore of said river about one hundred (100) feet westerly from the mouth of what is known as Dubray Creek. Such construction and maintenance may be by either one or by both of said political subdivisions, or it may be by either one or both of them in conjunction with any one or more of the local subdivisions of the State of Wisconsin into which such bridge shall extend; provided, that in such construction and maintenance the rights of the State of Wisconsin shall in nowise be infringed.

Approved April 26, 1907.
