

CHAPTER 124.—H. F. No. 210.

An act to amend Section 502, Revised Laws of 1905, relating to the bonds of County Depositaries.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Bond of surety company need not exceed the amount of deposits.—Section 1. That Section 502 of the Revised Laws of 1905, be, and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

Bonds of depositaries—"Every bank or banker, before being designated as a depository, shall deposit with the county treasurer a bond, to be approved by the county board, in at least double the amount to be deposited, payable to such county, and signed by not less than five resident freeholders as sureties: who shall in the aggregate qualify for the full penalty named in such bond. Provided, that any county in which there is no such bank or banker may be exempt from the foregoing provisions which relate to depositing its funds, if, in the judgment of the board of auditors and the county board, such deposit would be detrimental to its interests."

Provided that in cases where the bond furnished by said depository is that of a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Minnesota, the amount of such bond need not be more than the amount to be deposited in such depository.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 27, 1909.
