CHAPTER 362—H. F. No. 699.

An Act relating to the securing of public moneys by state, county, and city depositories.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Bonds and securities may be deposited in lieu of corporate or personal surety bonds—Authority of treasurer.—Section 1. Whenever any bank authorized to transact a banking business in this state shall be designated as a depository of state, county or city moneys, as provided by law, it may, in lieu of the corporate or personal surety bond provided by law to secure such deposit, furnish or deposit with the state, county or city treasurer, as the case may be, United States government bonds, state bonds of this or any other state, bonds of any county, school district, city, town or village of this state, and county drainage bonds of this state of the classes and kinds in which the permanent school fund of the state may be invested, in an amount equal to the maximum amount of money at any time to be deposited with such bank.

Provided, that such securities must have a market value of at least par and shall be approved by the board of deposit if given to secure state moneys, by the county board if given to secure county moneys, and by the common council or city council if given to secure city moneys, and shall be accompanied by a proper assignment to the end that such depository so depositing and assigning such securities shall and will safely keep and pay over to the treasurer, or his order, on demand, free of exchange, all moneys deposited therein at any time while such bonds or securities shall be so deposited, with interest thereon at the rate agreed upon; and provided, that in case of default on the part of such depository, the board of deposit, county board, or common council, or city council, as the case may be, shall have full power and authority to sell such securities or so much thereof as may be necessary to realize the full amount of the funds so deposited in such depository, together with interest thereon, and to pay the balance or overplus, if any, to the depository entitled thereto.

Authority is given to the treasurer to return said securities to the depository so depositing them when the trust so created is terminated, and to exchange upon application, any other securities for the securities so deposited, of equal value and of any of the classes herein permitted to be deposited.

The interest on such bonds or securities so deposited and furnished shall, when paid, be turned over to the bank so depositing the same, so long as it is not in default.

It is further provided, that if the surety on the bond of any depository of state, county or city moneys is a surety company authorized to do business in this state, said bond shall be in a penal sum to the amount designated by the board of deposit as the limit of deposits in said bank.

Sec. 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 22, 1909.
