CHAPTER 133—S. F. No. 588.

An Act to amend section 2 of chapter 166 of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1905, entitled "An Act to provide for the appointment of inspectors of mines in counties of this state, to prescribe their powers and duties, and to provide for their compensation and expenses."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Expenses of inspector of mines not to exceed $600.—Section

1. That section 2 of chapter 166 of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1905 be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 2. Such inspector of mines shall be at least twenty-five years of age, a citizen of the State of Minnesota and a resident of the county wherein he is appointed, shall be of good moral character and temperate habits, and shall have had previous to his appointment practical experience as a miner or otherwise engaged as an employe in mines of the state at least six years, or a mining engineer having had previous to his appointment at least two years' practical experience in iron mines and iron mining and having had at least one year's such experience in this state. He shall not while in office in any way be interested as an owner, operator, agent, stockholder or engineer of any mine. He shall make his residence or have his office in the mining district of the county for which he is appointed. The salary of the inspector of mines shall be such sum as shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners, not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum, and he shall in addition be allowed actual traveling expenses not to exceed six hundred dollars in any one year. He shall file with the county auditor an itemized account of his expenses every three months, verified by his affidavit, showing that they have been incurred in the discharge of his official duties. He shall before entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office, take an oath before some person authorized by law to administer oaths that he will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Minnesota and that he will faithfully, impartially and to the best of his ability, discharge the duties of his office, and he shall file a certificate of his having done so in the office of the auditor of the county for which he is appointed, and he shall also give a bond payable to said board of commissioners in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the board of county commissioners of the county for which he is appointed, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge the duties of his office, and said bond shall be filed with the county auditor of such county.

Approved April 13, 1911.

CHAPTER 134—S. F. No. 213.

An Act to authorize any city in this state having a home rule charter to provide for the payment of special assessments for paving in not to exceed fifteen annual installments, in cities having a population of twenty thousand inhabitants or less.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Special assessments to be paid in fifteen annual installments.

—Section 1. That any city having a home rule charter in this state and having a population of twenty thousand inhabitants or less may, in addition to the powers conferred upon it by charter, provide for the payment of special assessments for the paving of any public street, alley, lane, levee or highway, in not to exceed fifteen annual installments in the manner as follows:

Duties of council or board of public works.—Sec. 2. The city council of any such city or the board of public works of any such city, whichever body is by charter authorized to make a special assessment for the costs and expense of paving any public street, alley, lane, levee or highway, may, if they deem it expedient so to do, by resolution, determine the number of annual installments, not to exceed fifteen in which such assess-
