

CHAPTER 150—S. F. No. 817.

An act prohibiting certain regulations concerning admission to, and membership in, Minnesota Soldiers' Home and providing penalty for violation thereof and amending section one thousand eight hundred forty-seven (1847), Revised Laws 1905, relating thereto.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Inmate of soldiers' home to retain pension.—Section 1. The soldiers' home board of the Minnesota soldiers' home shall not make or enforce any rule, regulation or by-law requiring any applicant for admission to, or any inmate of said soldiers' home to pay or to promise or agree to pay, his United States pension, or any part thereof, or to pay any sum in any manner whatsoever, to the soldiers' home or to any board or officer or employee thereof, or to any department or fund thereof or appertaining thereto, or to part with or to promise to part with such pension or any part thereof or of any sum of money whatsoever as a condition of admission to such soldiers' home, or as a condition of remaining an inmate thereof, or as a condition of or as payment for granting or according to such inmate, or to such applicant, if admitted, any ordinary or special attention or service in or in connection with such home.

Employee of board not to receive any portion of pension.—Sec. 2. No servant, agent or employee of such soldiers' home shall accept or receive from any applicant for membership in, or from any inmate of such soldiers' home, any part of the United States pension of such applicant or inmate, or any sum of money whatsoever in any manner whatsoever in any case mentioned in section one (1) hereof wherein the soldiers' home board is prohibited from requiring payment or promise of payment thereof from such applicant or inmate.

Inmate may be required to support wife or dependent children.—Sec. 3. This act shall not be construed in such a manner as to prevent or prohibit the soldiers' home board from making and enforcing a regulation requiring inmates of such soldiers' home to pay to such board of managers for the support of the wife or dependent children of such inmate all or any part of the United States pension received by such inmate in excess of the sum of four dollars per month.

Violation a misdemeanor.—Sec. 4. Any agent, officer, employee or servant of such soldiers' home or soldiers' home board violating any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be forthwith discharged from any position in connection with such soldiers' home.

One-half of pension may be set aside for support of wife or dependent children.—Sec. 5. That section one thousand eight hundred forty-seven (1847), Revised Laws, 1905, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“1847. If such applicant or if any inmate of such home have a wife or children dependent upon him for support, the soldiers' home board may in its discretion require that any such applicant or inmate, who receives a United States pension exceeding four dollars per month, shall pay, not to exceed however, one-half thereof, to be determined by such board of managers for the support and maintenance of such wife or dependent children. Such board may in addition grant to such dependents a monthly allowance from the relief fund in such sum as shall be determined by such board.”

Sec. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 13, 1911.
