CHAPTER 167—H. F. No. 1022.

An Act to provide for the instruction of pupils in an adjoining district, to authorize state aid in such cases, and to repeal section 1322 of the Revised Laws of 1905.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Pupils may receive instruction in an adjoining district.—

Section 1. The school board of any district, when it deems it advisable, may provide for the instruction of its pupils in an adjoining district, and in such case may discontinue the schools of its own district, or of any grades or departments in said schools, and provide for the free transportation of the pupils of its own district to the school in an adjoining or nearby district. The teachers shall keep the registers separately for the pupils from such district discontinuing its schools, and shall return the registers and make separate records to the clerk of such district and to the county superintendent, of the number and names of pupils, with their attendance, and such district shall retain its organization and shall be entitled to public money, including the special state aid granted to common schools of Class A, under such rules as may be fixed by the superintendent of public instruction, except that public money for non-resident pupils enrolled in the high school department shall go to the district in which the high school is located. Such aid shall be paid from the appropriation made for common schools.

Sec. 1322 R. L. 1905 repealed.—Sec. 2. Section 1322 of the Revised Laws of 1905 is hereby repealed.
