CHAPTER 168—H. F. No. 1101.

An Act to fix the compensation of judges of the probate court in the State of Minnesota in counties having a population of not less than two hundred thousand inhabitants and not over three hundred thousand inhabitants.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Salaries of certain probate judges fixed at $5,700 per annum.

—Section 1. That the compensation of judges of the probate court in all counties of this state having according to the then last completed state or national census the population of not less than two hundred thousand inhabitants and not more than three hundred thousand inhabitants, is hereby fixed at the sum of fifty-seven hundred dollars per annum, which shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury of such counties upon warrants of the county auditor.

State or national census to govern.—Sec. 2. Whenever according to the then last state or national census the population of any county of this state, which now has a population of less than two hundred thousand inhabitants, shall acquire not less than that number, such county shall at once become subject to the provisions of this act, and whenever, according to such census the population of any county shall exceed three hundred thousand inhabitants or fall under two hundred thousand inhabitants, the provisions of this act at the expiration of ninety days from the final filing of the enumeration of such county shall no longer apply thereto.

Inconsistent acts repealed.—Sec. 3. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 15, 1911.
