

CHAPTER 198—S. F. No. 24.

An Act to validate and confirm certain village corporations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Certain village corporations confirmed.—Section 1. That all villages incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under and pursuant to the provisions of chapter 9, Revised Laws of Minnesota, 1905, and acts amendatory thereto, between June 1st, 1907, and March 1st, 1908, and also between January 1st, 1911, and March 1st, 1911, in which incorporations or attempted incorporations the certificate of the inspectors of election was not filed in the office of the county auditor with the election returns and poll list, but was made and filed at a later date, and which villages have ever since maintained and still maintain a village form of government, are hereby in all things legalized, validated and confirmed, and declared legally incorporated villages without reference to whether the platted portions of the territory so incorporated or attempted to be incorporated are contiguous, or whether such territory is urban or agricultural in character, and notwithstanding any errors or omissions of any matter or thing by law required as a pre-requisite to the incorporation of such villages, and notwithstanding any defect in the petition, notice of election or certificate of inspectors of election in and about such incorporation or attempted incorporation. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall affect any action now pending.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 18, 1911.

CHAPTER 199—S. F. No. 99.

An Act to regulate the disposition and custody of infants born in lying-in places.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Report to be made to probate judge.—Section 1. That from and after the passage and publication of this act all persons holding a permit and operating a lying-in place, under the provisions of section 2304, Revised Laws of Minnesota, 1905, shall within three days after the birth thereof, in addition to the reports now required by law, make a written report of the birth
