

In counties whose population according to the last completed state or national census, is less than forty-five thousand, the salary of the county attorney shall be fixed by the county board not exceeding two thousand dollars per year; and not less than one thousand dollars per year; if dissatisfied with the amount so fixed, any county attorney may appeal to the district court within thirty days by filing with the auditor a notice thereof. The court, either in term or vacation, and upon eight days notice to the chairman of the board, shall hear such appeal and summarily determine the amount of such salary for the term of office by an order, a copy of which shall be filed with the auditor.

In counties whose population is forty-five thousand or more and less than seventy-five thousand, the salary shall be two thousand five hundred dollars per year, which shall be paid monthly by the county. The provision of this act shall not apply to counties having more than seventy-five thousand inhabitants.

Approved April 18, 1911.
