

CHAPTER 267—H. F. No. 272.

An Act requiring non-residents of Minnesota to take out a license to fish with hook and line within the boundaries of the State of Minnesota.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Non-residents required to secure license to fish in this state.—

Section 1. Every person over the age of 21 years, not a resident of the State of Minnesota, is prohibited from fishing with hook and line in any waters of this state without first having secured a license therefor from the game and fish commission, from a county auditor, or from a local game warden. The fee for such license shall be $1.00.

Application to be made to county auditor or deputy game warden.—Sec. 2. The county auditor shall, upon application, issue to persons applying therefor, under his seal, upon blanks to be furnished him by the game and fish commission, upon the payment of the fee of $1.00 a license for such fishing which shall expire at the close of the fishing season of the year in which the license is issued. Ten cents of the amount received for the issuance of said license shall be retained by the county auditor as his fee, and the balance remitted to the state treasurer monthly, who shall credit the same to the game and fish commission fund to be used for the purpose of enforcing the game and fish laws of Minnesota.

Deputy game warden to make prompt remittance.—Sec. 3. When a license is issued by a deputy game warden, the full amount of the license fee shall be promptly remitted to the office of the game and fish commission and by it deposited with the state treasurer and credited as above provided, as shall also all moneys paid to the game and fish commission for licenses so issued by it.

Violation a misdemeanor.—Sec. 4. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than one (1) dollar nor more than five (5) dollars for every fish so taken.

Approved April 19, 1911.
