CHAPTER 342—H. F. No. 576.

An Act permitting children to attend school in adjoining school districts in this state and providing method therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Children permitted to attend school in adjoining district—Mode of procedure.—Section 1. The child or children of any person in this state not resident within the limits of any incorporated city or village of this state, and residing more than two miles by the nearest traveled road from the school house in the district where such child or children reside, are hereby authorized to attend school at a school or school house in an adjoining district nearer to such residence than the said school house in the said district where such child or children reside, upon such reasonable terms as shall be fixed by the school board of such adjoining district, upon application of the parents or guardian of such child or children. In case such parent or guardian is not satisfied or cannot comply with the terms and conditions fixed and determined by the school board of such adjoining district, and shall apply to the state superintendent of public instruction for that purpose, the state superintendent of public instruction shall give such notice of such application to the clerk of the school board of such adjoining district as shall be determined by such superintendent of public instruction, and shall after such notice, decide such application and fix such terms and conditions for the attendance of such child or children in such adjoining district as shall be just and reasonable, and thereupon such child or children may attend such school in such adjoining district upon compliance with the terms fixed by such superintendent of public instruction, the same in other respects as if resident in the district where such school house is situated. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing, amending or modifying the provisions of section 1321, Revised Laws of 1905, as amended by chapter 445 of the General Laws of Minnesota, 1907.

CHAPTER 343—H. F. No. 583.

An Act to amend section seven hundred fifty-six (756), Revised Laws, 1905, as amended by section one (1) of chapter one hundred ninety-nine (199) of the General Laws of Minnesota for 1907, relating to amendments to charters of cities and villages in this state.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Publication of proposed amendments.—Section 1. That section seven hundred fifty-six (756) Revised Laws, 1905, as amended by section one (1) of chapter one hundred ninety-nine (199) of the General Laws of Minnesota for 1907 be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“756. Amendments.—The board of freeholders may propose amendments to such charter, and shall do so upon the petition of five per cent of the voters of the city, setting forth in substance the amendment desired. Amendments shall be submitted as in the case of the original charter, and the proposal shall be published for at least thirty days in not exceeding three newspapers of general circulation in such city. The form of ballot and mode of voting shall be similar to those used upon the adoption of such charter, the general nature of each amendment being briefly indicated. If three-fifths of those lawfully voting at such election shall declare in favor of any amendment so proposed, the same shall be certified, deposited and recorded, and shall take effect, as in the case of the original charter; provided that, if it be proposed that any amendment shall take effect at a specified time, it shall take effect as proposed.”

Approved April 20, 1911.
