CHAPTER 38—S. F. No. 136.

An Act to provide for the election of members of the Board of Education in special school districts, or independent districts partly affected by special laws in cities of less than ten thousand (10,000) and more than four thousand (4,000) inhabitants in which the boundaries are co-extensive with the boundaries of such special or independent school districts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Election of members of board of education in certain cities.—

Section 1. That in all cities containing a population of less than ten thousand (10,000) and more than four thousand (4,000) inhabitants, in which the boundaries of a special school district, or an independent district partly affected by special laws are co-extensive with the boundaries of the city, and in which, by reason of the adoption of a home rule charter, or by the terms of any special act relating to the district, no provision has been made for the election of members of the board of education at the city election, such members of the board of education shall be elected at the biennial elections of such city in the following manner:

Such members of the board of education shall be elected by the qualified voters of the district (city) as other city officers are elected at the said biennial election, and shall serve for the period of four years. The terms of those last elected shall be extended until two years after the next charter election. The terms of those elected at the election prior to the last election shall expire at the next charter election.

May be nominated same as other city officers.—Sec. 2. Said members of the board of education may be nominated at the time nominations for city officers are made and the names of such nominees shall be placed on the official ballot at such city elections and shall be voted for and the votes counted, canvassed, and returned in the same manner as votes for city officers are counted, canvassed and returned. Provided that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect the provisions of chapter 212, Laws of 1909.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 22, 1911.

CHAPTER 39—S. F. No. 301.

An Act providing for the licensing of transient merchants, defining the same and the manner of issuing licenses, regulating the advertising of such merchants, and providing for penalties for the violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Transient merchant to obtain license.—Section 1. That hereafter it shall be unlawful for any transient merchant to engage in, do or transact any business as such, without first having obtained a license as hereinafter provided.

File application with county auditor.—Sec. 2. Any transient merchant desiring to engage in, do, or transact business in any county in this state, shall file an application for a license for that purpose with the auditor of the county in which he desires to do business, which application shall state his name, his proposed place of business, the kind of business proposed to be conducted, and the length of time for which he desires to do business. Such transient merchant shall pay to the treasurer of such county a license fee of one hundred and fifty ($150) dollars, and the treasurer of such county shall issue to such person a receipt there-
