CHAPTER 49—H. F. No. 415.

An Act to amend Section Ninety of Chapter Eight of the General Laws of Minnesota for 1895, providing for a permanent improvement revolving fund, and for the issuance and sale of certificates of indebtedness of certain cities of this state.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Certificates not to exceed three-fourths of one per cent. of total value of taxable property of such city.—Section 1. That section ninety of chapter eight of the General Laws of Minnesota for 1895 be and the same hereby is amended so that the same shall read as follows:

“Section 90. Permanent improvement revolving fund.—There shall be created, if necessary, and maintained in the city treasury, if the city council shall so direct by ordinance, a fund to be designated as the permanent improvement revolving fund, into which shall be paid all accounts realized from the sale of certificates of indebtedness issued on account of such fund, and the principal sum of all special assessments and benefits assessed and levied on account of any local improvements, as well as all taxes levied on account of such fund, and there shall be paid out of such fund that portion of all local improvements for which special assessments are levied, and such amount of excess assessments as may in any instance be refunded, and for no other purpose whatever. And the city shall maintain such fund sufficient to meet the expenses of all such improvements as the same become payable, as in this act provided. And the city council may from time to time by ordinance by a three-fourths ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) vote, issue, negotiate and sell certificates of indebtedness for the creating or maintaining of such fund, and such certificate shall not be sold for less than par and accrued interest, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed six (6) per cent. per annum, and shall be made payable from said fund and at such times as the city council may determine; provided, however, that the amount of certificates so issued shall not exceed at any one time three-fourths ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) of one per cent. of the total value of taxable property of such city, according to the last preceding assessment for purposes of taxation; provided, however, that cities already having created a permanent improvement revolving fund, by the issuance of bonds up to the limit prescribed by existing laws, shall not have authority to issue certificates of indebtedness as permitted by this section.
