CHAPTER 94—H. F. No. 535.

An Act to create the position of Fire Marshal, to provide for his appointment and defining his duties and compensation in any city in this State that now has or hereafter may have a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Office of fire marshal in cities of over 50,000.—Section 1. In every city in the State of Minnesota that now has, or hereafter may have, a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, and which does not now have an official in its fire department designated and acting as fire marshal, under the charter of such city, there is hereby created the office of fire marshal, and it shall be the duty of the chief of the fire department of such city to appoint from among the members of the fire department a fire marshal, and he shall hold office until removed for cause.

Duties of fire marshal.—Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the fire marshal to examine all property within said city and enforce the ordinances of the city relating to the care of chimneys, the storage and handling of explosives and enforce all other ordinances and laws of the state pertaining to precautions against danger from fires. Said fire marshal shall have power to enter any dwelling or other building between 7 o'clock a. m. and 6 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of making said examination, and he shall examine into the cause of every fire which shall happen in such city and make a complete report of the same, and make a report thereof monthly to the chief of the fire department. He shall report all violations of ordinances of the city and laws of the state relating to the public safety, in all public buildings, and shall sign and file complaints before the proper prosecuting officers for the enforcement of said ordinances. Said fire marshal shall receive as his compensation a sum to be fixed by the board of fire commissioners, not less than the salary paid a captain of the fire department of such city.
