CHAPTER 76—S. F. No. 65.

An Act to amend Section 2391, of Chapter 39, of Revised Laws of Minnesota 1905, relating to tree bounties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Tree bounty for trees grown on timber as well as prairie land.—That Section 2391, of Chapter 39, of Revised Laws of Minnesota 1905, be amended so as to read as follows:

“Section 2391. Every person who shall plant one acre or more of () land with forest trees of any kind other than black locust, and shall keep such trees growing in a thrifty condition, and not more than twelve feet apart either way, replacing yearly such as may die, shall receive from the state two dollars and fifty cents per acre therefor for six successive years, not exceeding, however, twenty-five dollars in any one year. This section shall not apply to any railway company, to any person who has already received such compensation, nor to any person planting trees in compliance with an act of Congress approved March 3, 1873, relating to the growth of timber on western prairies, or any act amendatory thereof.
