CHAPTER 328—H. F. No. 1165.

An Act authorizing cities of over 50,000 inhabitants not governed under a home-rule charter to appropriate and use certain good road funds for defraying the cost of paving on the public streets and avenues in such cities.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minneapolis authorized to use road fund for defraying cost of paving.—Each city of this state now or hereafter having over fifty thousand inhabitants and not governed under a charter adopted pursuant to section 36, article 4 of the state constitution is hereby authorized and empowered, acting through its city council, to appropriate an amount not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars from the so-called good roads funds of the city heretofore raised by taxation under and pursuant to Chapter 368, General Laws of 1909, and Chapter 175, General Laws of 1913, and to use such amount not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars for the purpose of defraying the cost of paving any of the public streets or avenues in such city laid and constructed during the year 1914, in such manner and to such extent as the city council of such city shall deem best, notwithstanding any express or implied limitations in either of said acts to the contrary, and to annul and cancel in whole or in pro rata parts according to frontage the special assessments made on abutting property for the cost of such paving to an amount not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars, and to authorize and require the county auditor of the county in which such city is situated to cancel upon the tax lists and tax books in his office and in the office of the county treasurer the special assessments or portions thereof canceled and annulled by the city council pursuant to this act. The amount of any portions of any such assessments so canceled by the city council which shall be paid by owners of abutting property assessed therefor may be refunded and repaid from said amount of fifteen thousand
