CHAPTER 276—S. F. No. 1022.

An act permitting certain insurance companies to insure against loss or damage to property from explosion, bombardment or acts of war.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Certain insurance companies permitted to insure against loss or damage to property from explosion, bombardment or acts of war.—Any domestic insurance corporation having corporate power to transact any of the kinds of business described in subdivision 1 of section 1 of chapter 138, General Laws of Minnesota for 1915, is hereby granted corporate power and authority to insure, and is authorized to insure against loss or damage to property resulting from explosion, bombardment or acts of war or occasioned by or resulting from a state of war between the United States and any foreign state or nation or between any two or more foreign states or nations; and any foreign insurance corporation duly licensed to transact in this state any of the kinds of business specified in said subdivision 1 of section 1 of chapter 138, Laws of 1915, is hereby authorized to insure in this state against the risks hereinabove specified, provided such foreign corporation has corporate authority so to do under the law of its creation.

Sec. 2. Form to be approved by insurance commissioner.—No policy insuring against any such loss or damage shall be issued or delivered in this state until the form thereof has been filed with the commissioner of insurance and approved by him.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1917.
