CHAPTER 307—H. F. No. 415.

An act to amend Section 975, General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, relating to contingent fund of county attorneys and providing for the payment therefrom of the necessary expenses of the county attorney, incurred in the business of the county.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. County attorney of Polk county allowed a contingent fund of $1,000 per annum.—That section 975, General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

975. The county board may set apart yearly a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars as a contingent fund for defraying necessary expenses not especially provided for by law, in preparing and trying criminal cases, conducting investigations by the grand jury, and paying the necessary expenses of the county attorney incurred in the business of the county. All disbursements from such fund shall be made upon written request of the county attorney by auditor's warrant, countersigned by a judge of the district court. Any balance remaining at the end of the year shall be transferred to the revenue fund. Provided that in counties now having or that may hereafter have a population of not less than forty-five thousand (45,000) nor more than sixty thousand (60,000) and containing an area not less than thirty-five (35) nor more than fifty-five (55) congressional townships, the maximum limit for the contingent fund of the county attorney, appropriated by the county board, shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1917.
