

or hereafter having over 50,000 inhabitants not operating under a home rule charter and not governed under a charter adopted pursuant to Sec. 36, Article 4 of the State Constitution, may by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of all the members elect of its city council issue and sell bonds of such city to the amount of $100,000 in par value for the purpose of repairing and enlarging armories, and the bonds provided for in this act may be issued and sold notwithstanding any charter provision of such city or any laws of this state limiting the amount of indebtedness of any such city.

Sec. 2. Thirty years at 4% and form of bond.—No bonds shall be issued by any such city for the purposes above mentioned to run for a longer time than thirty years, nor bearing a rate of interest greater than four (4) per cent per annum, but the place of payment of the principal and interest thereon and the denominations in which the same shall be issued shall be such as may be determined upon by the city council and such bonds may be in the form of coupon bonds or registered certificates so-called. All such bonds shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk and countersigned by the comptroller of such city and shall be sealed with the seal of the city, except that the signatures on the coupons attached to such bonds, if any, may be lithographed thereon. Said bonds shall not be sold for less than ninety-five (95) per cent of their par value and accrued interest thereon and shall be sold to the highest responsible bidder therefor, upon at least two weeks' published notice of the sale of such bonds. The full faith and credit of such city shall be pledged at all times for the payment of all bonds issued under this act and the interest thereon, and such city shall each year levy sufficient taxes to pay annual interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient for the redemption of said bonds at maturity.

Sec. 3. Application.—This act shall not apply to any city operating under a home-rule charter framed pursuant to Section 36 of Article 4 of the State Constitution.

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 20, 1917.

CHAPTER 369—S. F. No. 651.

An act relating to the collection of the costs and expenses incurred heretofore, by the establishment of drainage ditches, in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Provision for collection of assessments where same have been omitted from original statements made by county auditor.—Wherever any items of cost of a ditch established under the provisions of Chapter 230 of the General Laws of 1905, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, from its inception to its completion, have heretofore been omitted from the original tabular statement for assessment made and filed by the auditor with the register of deeds and the supplementary statement for assessment made and filed by said auditor under the provisions of Section 5590, General Statutes 1913, and such omitted items have been paid by the county by warrant on the ditch fund thereof, then and in that case an additional supplementary statement for assessment shall be made by said auditor in the same form and manner as the original statement, so far as practicable, showing such omitted items and interest accrued on the warrants issued in payment thereof, which additional supplementary statement for assessment shall be filed for record with the register of deeds in the proper county, and in the discretion of such county auditor, may be made due, payable and collectible either in the same manner, time and form as if a part of the last annual installment of the original assessment, or in installments, the number thereof to be equal to the number of installments remaining unpaid on such original statement for assessment at the time such additional supplementary statement shall be filed; and in either event such additional supplementary statement shall be and operate as a lien on the land affected as fully as though part of such original assessment.

Sec. 2. Auditor to notify various persons affected.—Upon the filing by the auditor of such additional supplementary statement for assessment with the register of deeds, said auditor shall notify each person by mail whose lands are affected thereby of the filing of such statement and the individual assessment due thereon. Such notice shall be sent to the last known address of such persons.

Sec. 3. Not to apply to pending actions.—This act shall not apply to or affect any action or appeals now pending.

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.
Approved April 20, 1917.

CHAPTER 370—S. F. No. 706.

An act to amend Section 679, General Statutes 1913, relating to counties and county officers.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Re-districting of commissioner districts.—That Section 679, General Statutes, 1913, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:
