Provided, that for the years ending July 31, 1918 and 1919, respectively, the board of control is authorized by and with the approval of the state auditor, to transfer in cases of necessity a portion of the funds appropriated for the current expense of any one of the following institution, namely: The Anoka state asylum, the Hastings state asylum, the Willmar state asylum, the Fergus Falls state hospital, the Rochester state hospital, the St. Peter state hospital, the school for feeble-minded, the school for the blind, the school for the deaf, the state public school, the state training school, the home school for girls, the state reformatory, the state prison, the sanatorium for consumptives, the hospital for crippled children, to the use of any other of the aforesaid institutions; and it is further authorized, by and with the approval of the auditor, to use the sums not exceeding in the aggregate five thousand (5,000) dollars, where necessary, to supplement the appropriations for current expenses of any of the above named institutions; and

Provided, further, That said board may, without such consent and approval of the auditor, use the balance of any appropriation made for a specific purpose at any institution for any other specific purpose in and about such institution, after the purpose for which such appropriation was made has been accomplished; and

Provided, further, That said board is hereby authorized and empowered to set aside a portion of the current expense fund of any such institution to be used as a diversified labor fund for the introduction and encouragement of such industries as in its judgment may be beneficial to the inmates of such institution; and

Provided, further, That in case of the damage or destruction of any insured buildings belonging to the state, all moneys derived from the insurance thereon shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the institution at which such damage occurred, and the board having the control of such institution shall have the right to expend such insurance money upon the repair of such building, if repairable; otherwise such money shall be used, with such sums as may be specially appropriated therefor by the legislature, for reconstruction of the buildings so destroyed.

Sec. 19. Whenever it becomes necessary, in order to meet the current demands upon the revenue fund for the payment of appropriations, the governor, auditor, and treasurer may, at any time prior to July 31, 1919, make such agreement with banks or other corporations or persons, as they may deem advisable or necessary to pay warrants issued against said revenue fund pursuant to any such appropriation prior to the time when the money to meet such appropriation comes into the state treasury, and whenever any warrants so issued are paid for the accommodation of the state the money necessary to pay interest upon the amounts of such warrants from the time when such payment was made until the money to redeem such warrants comes into the state treasury, at the rate agreed upon by the said governor, auditor and treasurer, is hereby appropriated.

Sec. 20. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 23, 1917.
