

CHAPTER 461—H. F. No. 1123.

An act providing for the revision and codification of the game laws of the state of Minnesota.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Appointment of five members for revision and codification of game laws.—That a commission of five members be and hereby is created, to consist of one member of the house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker, one member of the senate to be appointed by the lieutenant governor, one person to be appointed by the governor, the game and fish commissioner, and one member of the attorney general's force to be designated by the attorney general, to revise, codify and annotate the laws of this state relating to the preservation, protection and propagation of game and fish. Such appointments shall be made within ten days after the passage of this act, and before the adjournment of the present legislative session. Said commission shall designate one of their number to act as chairman.

Sec. 2. Duty of commission and report.—It shall be the duty of said commission to examine and compare the existing laws relating to game and fish, and the preservation, protection and propagation thereof in force in this state at the close of the present legislative session, together with the judicial interpretation and construction thereof, and to propose and recommend such revision and codification thereof as shall, in their opinion, simplify, harmonize and complete the same and they shall prepare the same in the form of a bill for introduction at the legislative session of 1919. Said commission shall file their report of such revision and codification, including the full text of all the laws recommended by them including annotations, with a full and complete index of the whole, with the game and fish commissioner, who shall cause to be printed and bound in pamphlet form five hundred copies of said report, on or before December 1, 1918, and immediately deliver a copy of such report to the governor, the attorney general, each justice of the supreme court, each district judge, each clerk of the district court, and each member elect of the state legislature, and the remaining copies shall be distributed by the game and fish commissioner to game protective associations, and other persons making request therefor. Said commission shall also submit, with its report, a list of all laws and parts of laws the repeal of which it shall recommend, giving the chapter number and title of each.

The printing of said report shall be done in the same manner as other state printing, according to the provision of subdivision 3 of paragraph 2267, chapter 34, Revised Laws of 1905.

Sec. 3. To serve without pay, but to be allowed expenses.—The members of said commission shall serve without pay for their services, but shall be allowed and paid their actual traveling and all other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of said duties, not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars in all. The game and fish commissioner through his office, without additional expense to the state, shall perform all the clerical work in connection with the work of said commission. Payment hereunder shall be made from time to time by the state treasurer upon warrants of the state auditor issued upon receipt of vouchers of said commissioners.

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 19, 1917.

CHAPTER 462—H. F. No. 1221.

An act prescribing the manner of payment of all fees and other receipts of the several officers, boards, departments and institutions of the state into the state treasury.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Fees and receipts of several state departments to be paid into state treasury daily.—All fees and other receipts of the several officers, boards and departments of the state and which is the property of the state shall be paid into the state treasury daily, unless such receipts are under $50.00, in which event payment may be deferred until they aggregate such sum. The several state institutions shall make payments under this act on the first business day of each week; provided, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the state agricultural society: Not later than the fifth of each month such officer, board, department or institution shall render to the state auditor an account for the preceding month of all moneys so received and paid over, specifying the items and sources thereof in detail.

Sec. 2. Section 111, general statutes 1913, and all other inconsistent acts are hereby repealed.

Approved April 20, 1917.

CHAPTER 463—H. F. No. 1270.

An act making it unlawful to interfere with or discourage the enlistment of men in the military or naval forces of the United States or of the state of Minnesota, and providing punishment therefor.
