CHAPTER 99—S. F. No. 329.

An act to authorize cities in this state now or hereafter having a population of more than fifty thousand inhabitants to issue and sell bonds for improving parks and parkways.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. $125,000 park bond issue authorized for Minneapolis.—Any city in this state now or hereafter having a population of over 50,000 inhabitants is hereby authorized and empowered, acting by and through the common council of such city, by ordinance duly enacted by an affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of all the members-elect of such common council, upon request of the board of park commissioners of said city, or of such other governing body as may have charge and supervision of the parks and parkways of such city, to issue and sell one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000) par value of the bonds of such city for the purpose of improving parks and parkways.

Sec. 2. To be issued notwithstanding present indebtedness.—The bonds authorized by section 1 of this act, or any portion thereof, may be issued and sold by any such city notwithstanding any limitation contained in the charter of such city or in any law of this state prescribing or fixing any limit upon the bonded indebtedness of such city, but the full faith and credit of any such city shall at all times be pledged for the payment of any bonds issued under this act and for the current interest thereon, and the common council of such city shall each year include in the tax levy for such city a sufficient amount to provide for the payment of such interest and for the accumulation of a sinking fund for the redemption of such bonds at their maturity.

Sec. 3. To run thirty years at 4 per cent and how issued.—No bonds shall be issued by any such city for the purpose here-inabove mentioned to run for a longer term than thirty years or bearing a higher rate of interest than four per cent per annum, but the place of payment of the principal and interest thereof and the denominations in which the same shall be issued shall be such as may be determined upon by the common council, and may be in the form of coupon bonds, or registered certificates, so called. All such bonds shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the city clerk and countersigned by the city comptroller of such city, and shall be sealed with the seal of such city, except that the signatures to the coupons attached to such bonds, if any, may be lithographed thereon, and none of such bonds shall be sold at less than ninety-five per cent of their par values and accrued interest, and then only to the highest responsible bidder therefor.

Sec. 4. Application.—This act shall not apply to any city operating under a home rule charter, framed pursuant to section 36 of article 4 of the Constitution of Minnesota.

Sec. 5. Extension of power.—The powers granted by this act are in addition to all other existing powers of such cities.

Sec. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 23, 1917.

CHAPTER 100—S. F. No. 751.

An act to authorize cities of over 50,000 inhabitants in the state of Minnesota to levy taxes and provide a sinking fund for the payment and redemption of the bonds and other debts and obligations of such cities.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Sinking fund for payment of redemption of bonds, etc., of city of Minneapolis authorized.—In addition to all other powers now by it possessed, the city council of every city in the state of Minnesota now or hereafter having over 50,000 inhabitants and not governed under a charter adopted pursuant to section 36, article 4, of the state constitution, for the purpose of providing a sinking fund and making provision for the payment and redemption of the bonds and other debts and obligations of the city as they mature and become payable, may by resolution adopted by a majority of all the members elect of such city council annually levy a tax upon all the taxable property within the city. Such tax shall not in any one year exceed in amount one-fifth of one per cent of the total assessed valuation of such taxable property, and shall not be less than one-tenth of one per cent of such total assessed valuation, until ample provision has been made for the full payment of all bonds, debts and obligations of the city. Such taxes when levied shall be extended
