

to the county jail of such county may, during the time of her confinement therein, by order of the court making such commitment, be transferred from such jail and committed to such industrial home school for such time as to such court shall seem proper, not exceeding, however, the unexpired term of her sentence.

If any girl or woman committed or paroled into such industrial home school is found to be vicious or incorrigible, and not amenable to the regulations of said industrial home school, she may be recommitted to the county jail of such county by the court from which said girl or woman was committed.

Sec. 8. To be a place of detention.—Said school shall be a place of detention; and the district, juvenile and municipal courts and any justice of the peace of said county may commit to, parole to, or place in said school for temporary detention, any female coming within the respective jurisdictions of said courts, and any female who is committed to or placed therein may be released therefrom by order of said courts respectively.

Sec. 9. Inconsistent acts repealed.—All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith, including chapter 265, Laws of 1913, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 10. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 31, 1919.

CHAPTER 154—S. F. No. 822.

An act to amend Section 826, General Statutes 1913, as amended by Chapter 82, Laws 1917, relating to compensation of county auditor in certain counties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Salary of county auditors in certain counties.—That section 826, General Statutes 1913, as amended by chapter 82, Laws 1917, be amended so as to read as follows:

826. In all counties of this state having a population of 24,000 or more inhabitants where the salary of the county auditor of such county is by special law fixed at the sum of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) or less, said county auditor shall hereafter receive as salary in addition to said sum provided by said special law the sum of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) annually, payable in monthly installments.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1919.
