CHAPTER 159—S. F. No. 446.

An act authorizing the addition and annexation of territory to cities having a population of not less than ten thousand people nor more than twenty thousand people, according to the last federal census.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Annexation of territory to cities.—That whenever the majority of the owners of any property which has been platted into lots and blocks or outlots, or the owner of any tract, piece or parcel of land, abutting upon any incorporated city having a population of not less than ten thousand people nor more than twenty thousand people, according to the last federal census, whether such city is incorporated under general or special laws, or is operating under the terms and provisions of a home rule charter, shall petition the city council, city commission, or other governing body of said city, to have such property annexed to the city, the city council or other governing body may by ordinance, and the city commission, acting under a home rule charter, may by resolution, declare the same to be an addition to such city, and thereupon such territory shall become a part of such city, as effectually as if it had been originally a part thereof.

Sec. 2. Duties of city council.—It shall be the duty of the city council, city commission, or other governing body of any such city to which such territory shall be annexed and added under this act, to cause a certified copy of the ordinance or resolution aforesaid to be duly filed and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which said city is located, or, in the event that said city is located in more than one county, in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which said territory thus annexed to said city is situated, and to also in like manner cause a certified copy of said ordinance or resolution to be filed in the office of the county auditor of said county; provided, that this act shall be construed to be supplementary to any other law providing for the annexation of territory to cities having a population of not less than ten thousand people nor more than twenty thousand people, and not as repealing such law.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1919.
