

CHAPTER 204—S. F. No. 363.

An act to authorize the publication of the summary of the annual statements of insurance companies in certain insurance trade journals.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Publication of statements of insurance companies.—The publication of the summaries of the annual statements of insurance companies as required by the provisions of section 1618, Revised Laws of 1905, as amended by chapter 11, Laws of 1907, may be made in any insurance trade journal as defined in section 2 hereof, if the owner, or proprietor, or publisher will accept and publish the same at the rates prescribed by law for legal publications, with the same force and effect and in lieu of the publication thereof in a newspaper as defined in and required by the provisions of section 1619, Revised Laws of 1905, as amended by chapter 61, Laws of 1907.

Sec. 2. May be made in insurance trade journal.—Any publication authorized by the provisions of section 1, may be made in any insurance trade journal for the county in which it has its permanent office of publication if it comply with the following requirements: such journal must have been published continuously for ten years prior to any such publication, it must be circulated to a bona fide list of paid subscribers, it must be published to disseminate solely unbiased information relative to all phases of the business of insurance underwriting and shall not in any way or degree be owned or controlled by any insurance company or organization, and the owner of the same shall have filed with the commissioner of insurance an affidavit setting forth the existence of the conditions hereinbefore specified.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 10, 1919.
