CHAPTER 237—H. F. No. 727.

An act to amend Chapter 30, General Laws Minnesota 1913, relating to the use of hog cholera and other virus.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Distribution of hog cholera virus.—That sections 1 and 2 of chapter 30, General Laws Minnesota 1913, be and the same are hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell, give away or distribute to any person, firm or corporation any hog cholera virus unless he has taken special instruction and has passed an examination prescribed by the livestock sanitary board relative to the use of such virus, and when such examination has been successfully passed, said board shall issue a permit to such person, authorizing such person to administer such virus to animals owned by him, which permit shall be valid until revoked by the board for cause; provided, licensed veterinarians may administer such virus in infected territory only, without having taken special instruction on receipt of a permit from the livestock sanitary board. Hogs treated by any licensed veterinarian or the owner as hereinbefore provided for shall be properly quarantined for twenty-one (21) days or more if so-called vaccination cholera or other contagious diseases appear. A radius of six miles from premises where hog cholera exists, or has existed within the last twelve months, shall constitute infected territory. No swine shall be treated with serum virus in non-infected territory except by regular field veterinarian employed by the livestock sanitary board.

Sec. 2. Violation misdemeanor.—Every person or firm violating this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, the minimum punishment whereof shall be a fine of twenty-five (25) dollars, or imprisonment for thirty (30) days.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 12, 1919.

CHAPTER 238—H. F. No. 818.

An act entitled an act legalizing certain bonds heretofore issued by school districts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain school bonds legalized.—When any school district in this state shall heretofore have issued its bonds for the purpose of refunding its outstanding bonds or its floating indebtedness, or for defraying the expenses of building or equipping a school house, and such bonds have been actually sold, and the district has received as much as par and accrued interest therefor, such bonds are legalized and made valid and binding obligations of the school district issuing the same. But the provisions hereof shall not apply in the case of any bonds, the validity of which is called in question in any action now pending.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
