

of its corporate existence from the date of expiration of said period of duration for an additional term not exceeding twenty years, with the same force and effect as if renewed before its said period of duration expired by taking the proceedings provided by law for the renewal of the corporate existence of such corporation in cases where such renewal is made before the end of its period of duration. Provided, however, that the proceedings to obtain such renewal shall be taken within six months after the passage of this act. And provided further, that this act shall not affect any pending litigation nor apply to any corporation whose charter has been declared forfeited by the final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction in this state.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 15, 1919.

CHAPTER 244—S. F. No. 418.

An act to amend Section 7249, General Statutes of Minnesota, 1913, providing for the determination of heirship in certain cases.
Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Procedure for determination of adverse claims in homestead rights.—That section 7249, General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, be amended to read as follows:

7249. Whenever any person holding a homestead under the laws of the United States dies before making final proof, and final proof has afterwards been made by his heirs or devisees, and by reason thereof a patent shall afterwards be granted to "the heirs" or to "the devisees" of such person, the district court of the county in which the lands so patented are situated may, in a civil action brought for that purpose, determine who are such heirs or devisees, and may determine their respective shares in said homestead.

Sec. 2. Code of civil procedure to apply.—The provisions of the code of civil procedure relating to the determination of adverse claims to real estate insofar as the same may be applicable, shall pertain and govern the procedure in the action provided for in section 1.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of its passage.
