CHAPTER 250—S. F. No. 457.

An act authorizing cities having a population of not less than ten thousand people nor more than twenty thousand people, according to the last federal census, to issue bonds for the purpose of constructing and equipping a public armory building in such city.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. $75,000 bond issue authorized for armory at St. Cloud.—Any city in the state of Minnesota which, according to the last federal census, has a population of not less than ten thousand people and not more than twenty thousand people, is hereby authorized to issue the bonds of such city for the construction, completion and equipment of a public armory building in said city, said bonds to be in such denominations, payable at such times and at such rate of interest, and sold upon such terms as may be determined by a majority vote of the city council, city commission or other governing body of such city. Provided, however, that the aggregate of the face value of the bonds which shall be issued by virtue of the provisions of this act shall not exceed the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00).

Sec. 2.—To be decided by vote of people.—Before any bonds are issued under the provisions of this act by any such city, there shall be adopted by the city council, city commission, or other governing body of such city, a resolution certifying the purpose for which such bonds are required, the amount thereof necessary to be issued, the rate of interest the same shall bear, and the terms upon which said bonds shall be sold, and thereafter said city council, city commission, or other governing body, shall submit the question of the issue of said bonds and the sale thereof, pursuant to said resolution, to the legal voters of said city, either at a special election called for that purpose pursuant to the charter of said city, or at any general election held in said city, and if a majority of the legal voters of said city voting on said proposition vote in favor of the issuance of said bonds, then the council, city commission or other governing body of said city shall have full power and authority to issue and sell the same for the purpose specified in said resolution, and not otherwise. But if a majority of the legal voters of said city voting on said question should vote not to issue and sell said bonds, then the proposition shall be deemed rejected.

Sec. 3. Conduct of election.—Said election shall be conducted as are other special elections in said city, unless the proposition shall be submitted at a general city election, but in either case, the proposition shall be plainly submitted upon the city election ballot by the use of appropriate language, in conformity with the so-called Australian election ballot law of this state. Said vote shall be returned and canvassed as at other elections in said city.

Sec. 4. Inconsistent acts repealed.—All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 15, 1919.

CHAPTER 251—S. F. No. 476.

An act to amend Section 4973, General Statutes of Minnesota 1913, relating to the licensing of physicians by the state medical examining board.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. May license, without examination, physician passed by national board of medical examiners.—That section 4973, General Statutes Minnesota, 1913, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

4973. That the state medical examining board, either with or without examination, may grant a license to any physician licensed to practice by a similar board of another state, and who holds a certificate of registration showing that an examination has been made by the proper board of any state in which an average grade of not less than seventy-five (75) per cent was awarded to the holder thereof, the said applicant and holder of such certificate having been at the time of said examination the legal possessor of a diploma from a medical college in good standing in this state, which said diploma may be accepted in lieu of an examination as evidence of qualification. In case the scope of said examination was less than that prescribed by this state the applicant may be required to submit to an examination in such subjects as have not been covered. The fee for such examination shall be fifty dollars ($50.00).
