CHAPTER 33—H. F. No. 173.

An act amending section 167 of the General Statutes of 1913 relating to the annual meeting of the District Judges and to rules of the District Court.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Revision of rules of practice and other judiciary business authorized.—That section 167 of the General Statutes 1913 be amended to read as follows:

Section 167. The judges of the district courts shall assemble annually at such time and place as may be designated in a call for such meeting given by the district judge of said state longest in continuous service to revise the general rules of practice in such courts, for which purpose any eighteen of them shall constitute a quorum. When so assembled, such judges may revise and amend such rules as they deem expedient, conformably to law, and the same shall take effect from and after the publication thereof. Such rules, as the same shall be so revised and amended from time to time, shall govern all the district courts of the state; but, in furtherance of justice, they may be relaxed or modified in any case, or a party relieved from the effect thereof, on such terms as may be just. Any other proper business pertaining to the judiciary may also be transacted.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 21, 1919.
