An act relating to lien of owners of breeding animals and providing a penalty.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Lien for services.—Every owner of a stallion or a jackass kept and used for breeding purposes shall hereafter have a lien upon any dam served and upon colt gotten by such stallion or jackass, from date of service, for the sum stipulated to be paid for the service thereof, and may seize and take possession of said dam and colt or either, without process, at any time after such service fees are due and within eighteen months from date of such service, in case the price agreed upon for such service is unpaid, and may sell the same at public auction upon 10 days' notice, to be posted in at least three public places in the county where said dam is kept at the time of such service, and apply the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the amount due for such service and the expenses of such seizure and sale, returning the residue, if any, to the party entitled thereto. Provided, no such lien shall be effectual, for any purpose, as against an innocent purchaser of such colt or the dam thereof, for value, unless such owner having a claim for the services of such stallion or jackass shall file with the register of deeds of the county where the mare bred was kept at the time of such breeding, a statement showing that such service has been rendered and the amount due therefor.

Any person who shall sell or dispose of any dam, which to his knowledge, has been served by a stallion or jackass, or who sells or disposes of the offspring therefrom, the fee for which service has not been paid, with knowledge that such dam or offspring is to be removed from the county where kept as aforesaid, without the written consent of the owner of such lien, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Whenever it is provided in the contract for service that the service fees shall become due in case of a sale or other disposition of the animal bred, then such fees shall be deemed due within the meaning of this act as of the date of such sale:

Sec. 2. Application.—This act shall not be construed as repealing sections 7080 or 7081 of the General Statutes of 1913, except insofar as the same relates to liens for the service fees of stallions and jackasses for services hereafter rendered and all liens existing thereunder at the time of the taking effect of this act are preserved, and as to such liens the proceedings to perfect same shall be had under said section 7081.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 25, 1919.
