

"Section 1. That in any county in this state now or hereafter having an assessed valuation, exclusive of money and credits, of over two hundred and fifty million ($250,000,000) dollars and an area of over five thousand (5,000) square miles where said county, under existing law, is required to furnish and maintain at the expense of the county, a suitable place for holding terms of the District Court at the City of Virginia in said county, the County Board of said county is hereby authorized, whenever it shall by resolution determine that it is necessary and for the best interests of the public, that the building used for court purposes and a temporary jail or lockup, should be enlarged, to enter into and contract for and to cause such enlargement of said Court building to be made as it shall determine to be necessary. That for the purpose of defraying the cost of such addition to and enlargement of such court building, including a suitable jail or lockup therein, the County Board of said county is hereby authorized to include the cost of such court building addition in the annual tax levy for general county purposes, not exceeding the sum of $150,000.00 and that at any time after the taking effect of this law, either before or after the voting of such tax levy for such purpose, the County Board is hereby authorized to audit and allow the cost and expense of such court building addition in the same manner as other general claims against said county are paid and to cause orders or warrants to be drawn upon the general fund of said county in payment of said claims not exceeding the total amount appropriated for paying the cost of said improvements.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 29, 1921..
