

CHAPTER 158—H. F. No. 1155.

An act relating to the continuance to and until June 1, 1921, of the State Board of Arbitration as the same was constituted on March 14, 1921.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. State Board of Arbitration continued to June 1, 1921.—The state board of arbitration, as constituted on March 14, 1921, is hereby continued to and until June 1, 1921. All acts done and performed by said board between March 14, 1921, and the date of the approval of this act are hereby declared to have full force and effect as the acts of said state board of arbitration.

Sec. 2. Unexpended balances available.—All unexpended balances in appropriations made for the state board of arbitration are hereby made available for said board up to and until June 1, 1921.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1921.

CHAPTER 159—H. F. No. 275.

An act to amend Section 4182 of the General Statutes of 1913, relating to hearings before the railroad and warehouse commission.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Hearings before Railroad and Warehouse Commission.—Section 4182 of the General Statutes of 1913 is hereby amended to read as follows:

4182. If the matter be not adjusted to the satisfaction of the Commission, it shall set a time and place of hearing, and give at least ten days' notice thereof to each party. The parties may appear either in person or by attorney. The commission shall hear evidence and otherwise investigate the matter, and shall make findings of fact upon all matters involved, and such order or recommendation in the premises as may be just. A copy of such findings and order or recommendation shall forthwith be served upon each party. No proceeding shall be dismissed on account of want of pecuniary interest in the complaint. The commission is authorized to designate by resolution any of its employees to receive and report evidence. Employees so designated shall have power to administer oaths to witnesses, examine witnesses and receive evidence. In any proceedings in which the evidence is received by one commissioner or by an employee so designated such commissioner or employee shall make a full and complete report thereof to the commission and the commission shall proceed to a determination of the facts and issue its order or recommendation as hereinabove provided.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 7, 1921.

CHAPTER 160—H. F. No. 451.

An act relating to service of summons, notices and orders in any action or proceeding against any express company doing business within the state of Minnesota.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Service of summons and notice on express companies.—In any action or proceeding against an express company, whether domestic or foreign, transacting business in the State of Minnesota, service of summons and of all notices and orders in any action or proceeding wherein such express company is a party may be made by delivering a copy thereof to any agent of such express company within the county in which the action or proceeding is begun, and such service shall have the same effect as though made pursuant to the provisions of Section 7735 General Statutes, 1913; Provided that, if such company shall appear in an action or proceeding by a resident attorney, service of notices or orders in said action or proceeding shall thereafter be made upon such attorney.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 7, 1921.

CHAPTER 161—H. F. No. 652.

An act to amend Section 4945, General Statutes, 1913, relating to the State Board of Law Examiners and examination of applicants for admission to practice law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Board of law examiners—Examinations.—Section 4945, General Statutes, 1913, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

The Supreme Court shall by rule from time to time prescribe the qualifications of all applicants for admission to practice law in this state, and shall appoint a state board of law examiners, which shall be charged with the administration of such rules and regulations and with the examination of all applicants for admission to practice law. The board shall consist of not less than three nor more than seven attorneys at law, who shall be appointed each for the term of three years and until his successor qualifies. The Supreme Court may fill any vacancy in the Board for the unexpired term and in its discretion may remove any member thereof. The board shall have a seal
