

CHAPTER 168—S. F. No. 51.

An act legalizing certain affidavits of publication heretofore filed and the record thereof, wherein certain facts which should have been stated were omitted.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Affidavits of publication and record legalized in certain cases.—That all affidavits of the fact of the publication of any and all legal notices in any newspaper in this state heretofore made which omit to set forth that said newspaper has been circulated in and near its place of publication to the extent of at least two hundred and forty (240) copies regularly delivered to paying subscribers, such affidavits being in other respects in the form required by statute, are hereby declared to be legal and valid; and the record of any such affidavit heretofore or hereafter actually recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the proper county, or in any other public office where any such affidavit is required by law to be recorded, shall be in all respects legal and valid and such record shall have the same force and effect in all respects for the purpose of legal notice and evidence and otherwise as may be provided by law in case such affidavit had contained such omitted facts.

Sec. 2. Application.—Provided that the provisions of this act shall not apply to any action or proceeding now pending in any of the courts of this state in which the validity of any such affidavit is involved.

Approved April 7, 1921.

CHAPTER 169—S. F. No. 170.

An act to amend Section 1, of Chapter 332, Session Laws Minnesota 1917, relating to the organization of mutual companies to insure against loss from death or injury to blooded or registered horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, or other livestock.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Mutual insurance companies for insuring horses and cattle authorized.—That section 1, of chapter 332, Session Laws Minnesota 1917, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

“Section 1. It shall be lawful for any number of persons, not less than twenty-five, residing in adjoining towns in this state, who shall collectively own property worth at least fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00), to form themselves into a company or corporation for mutual insurance against loss by death of horses and cattle, but no such company shall operate in more than fifty towns in the aggregate at the same time. Provided, that where any such company confines its operations to one county, it may transact business in the
