CHAPTER 18—S. F. No. 238.

An act to legalize certain proceedings heretofore taken for the improvement of streets in certain cases in cities of the fourth class operating under home rule charters and to legalize the assessment of such improvements and the certificates of indebtedness issued for the expense thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Proceedings for street improvements legalized in certain cases.—In all cases where a city of the fourth class having a home rule charter under Section 36 of Art. IV of the State Constitution, has heretofore, acting through its City Council or other principal governing body, determined to improve any street or streets or any alley or alleys within said city by laying and maintaining pavements, gutters and curbs thereon of any nature which it deemed suitable or by grading or graveling same, by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the Council after a meeting at which all property owners where property was liable to be assessed thereof had been notified to be present by a notice of such meeting published in the official newspaper and has caused plans and specifications for such improvement to be made and has advertised for bids for such improvement and has entered into a contract for the construction thereof and such improvement has actually been constructed, and after such contract was let has caused to be prepared an assessment for such improvement against any assessable lot, piece or parcel of land affected by said improvement for the entire cost of such improvement, or exclusive of the cost of pavement across intersecting streets and alleys, one-half of the cost of a pavement opposite any public park or municipal property, and the entire cost of gutters—which excluded items the City may have determined to pay out of its general road fund or its general fund, which said assessment may have been assessed upon the abutting property based upon the number of feet fronting upon said street or alley so improved, or upon the basis of benefits; and has caused notice of the time and place when and where the council will meet and pass upon such proposed assessment to be published, in the official paper, and
