

CHAPTER 250—S. F. No. 515.

An act to amend Section 4630, General Statutes of 1913, relating to the records and files in the office of the superintendent of banks and the report of such official.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Section 4630, General Statutes of 1913, is hereby amended to read as follows:

4630. Records—Annual Report.—The superintendent of banks shall keep all proper records and files pertaining to the duties and work of his office, and shall report to the governor biennially, previous to the opening of the regular biennial session of the legislature, touching his official acts, giving general information as to banking conditions within the state, and the conditions as to other corporations to which his duties relate, and making such recommendation and suggestions as he may deem proper. The report shall contain a list of state banks, trust companies, building and loan associations and other financial corporations within the state, their capital stocks and surplus funds; also a list of suspended banks and financial corporations and a list of charter applications, together with their disposition, for the biennial period, but such report shall not contain a detailed statement of the condition of each bank or other financial corporation, which report shall be printed and bound in a satisfactory and substantial manner and distributed among all of the state banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations and other financial corporations within the state. ('09 C. 201 No. 7)

Sec. 2. This act shall be in effect and force from and after its passage.

Approved April 13, 1921.

CHAPTER 251—S. F. No. 545.

An act authorizing cities of not more than 10,000 inhabitants to arrange by contract or otherwise, to cause persons lawfully arrested to be placed in the county jails in the same or adjoining counties or in the city jail or lockup of an adjoining city where no jail exists in said city.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Cities may send prisoners to jails outside, when.—Whenever in any city now or hereafter having a population of not more than 10,000 inhabitants no jail exists, which in the judgment of the City Council or other governing body is sufficient or suitable for the detention of persons lawfully under arrest in said city, said council or other governing body may cause such person or persons lawfully arrested to be detained in any city or county jail or lockup in the same or in an adjoining county, provided that such detention shall be with the consent of the city or county where such person or persons are detained, and that there shall be paid to such city or county the necessary cost and expense which may be incident to taking care of such person or persons while lawfully detained or imprisoned.

Sec. 2. Not to jeopardize lawful custody of person.—That the detention or imprisonment of any person lawfully arrested in one city but detained or imprisoned in another under the provisions of this act shall in no manner jeopardize the lawful custody or detention of such person.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 13, 1921.

CHAPTER 252—S. F. No. 587.

An act to provide for the appointment of deputy clerks of the District Court to act as clerks of the Juvenile Court in counties where more than one judge of the Juvenile Court has been designated, and fixing the compensation of such Juvenile Court clerks in counties having over one hundred and fifty thousand (150,000) population and an area of more than five thousand (5,000) square miles, and repealing all acts inconsistent therewith.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Appointment of clerks of juvenile court in certain cases.—In every county of this state where terms of the juvenile court are held at the county seat and at a place or places other than the county seat and where more than one judge of the juvenile court has been designated, the clerk of the district court shall assign a deputy clerk of courts, subject to the approval of the judge of the juvenile court, to act as juvenile court clerk in connection with the juvenile court of such judge. In counties having not less than one hundred and fifty thousand (150,000) population and an area of more than five thousand (5,000) square miles, the salaries of the deputy clerk or deputy clerks assigned to act as clerk of the juvenile court shall be fixed and paid in the same manner as the salaries of other deputy clerks of the district court are fixed and paid. Such juvenile court deputy clerks may be especially appointed for the purposes provided by law in addition to other deputies provided for by law. The duties of such deputy clerks shall be those provided under Chapter 397, Laws of Minnesota for 1917, and amendments thereto. When not engaged in duties pertaining to the juvenile court, any deputy clerk assigned to such juvenile court shall do any such work in the clerk's office as the clerk may direct. When such deputy clerk is absent,
