

CHAPTER 263—S. F. No. 955.

An act relating to foxes kept in captivity for breeding purposes, prohibiting unauthorized approaching or entering enclosures holding the same and providing penalties therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Fox farms may not be entered.—From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person without the consent of the owner, lessee or caretaker of a ranch or other enclosure in this State where foxes are kept in captivity for breeding purposes, to enter upon the private grounds belonging to or under the control of the owner or owners of said animals, within a distance of twenty-five yards from the outer fence or enclosure or to pass within, through or over the outer fence or enclosure within which the pens or dens of said animals are located and upon which said fence or outer enclosure notices forbidding trespassing on the said premises are kept posted so as to be plainly discernible at the said distance of not less than twenty-five yards. Provided, however, that the act shall not apply to such enclosure erected within twenty-five yards of any public highway or within twenty-five yards of any land adjoining the land upon which such enclosure may be or is erected.

Sec. 2. Violation a misdemeanor.—Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 13, 1921.
