CHAPTER 329—H. F. No. 939.

An act to provide an additional judge for the district court of the fourth judicial district of the State of Minnesota, and to provide for the appointment of a deputy clerk for any county in said district.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Additional judge in fourth judicial district.—A judge of the district court of the fourth judicial district of the State of Minnesota, in addition to the present judges of said Court, is hereby authorized and the office of such additional judge is hereby created.

Sec. 2. Election.—An incumbent of the office hereby created shall be elected at the general election to be held next after the passage of this act. The person so to be elected shall have and possess the qualifications prescribed by law for the other judges of said court. He shall take office on the first Monday in January, 1923, and shall serve for a term of six years. His successor shall be elected as shall then be provided by law for the elections of judges of said court.

Sec. 3. Same power and duties as other judges.—The incumbent of the office hereby created shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges, and shall be subject to the same duties and obligations as are by law granted to or imposed on the other judges of said court. He shall receive the same compensation as such other judges, to be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the other judges of said Court.

Sec. 4. Appointment by governor—Vacancies.—Within ten days after the passage of this act, the governor of the State of Minnesota shall appoint a suitable and legally qualified person to hold the office of judge of the district court of the fourth judicial district, hereby created, beginning September 1, 1921 and continuing until the election and taking of office by an incumbent thereof under the provisions of section "2" on this act. Any vacancy in the office hereby created shall be filled in like manner as shall be provided by law for the filling of vacancies in the office of other judges of the district court of said district. Upon the appointment of such judge, the Clerk of the District Court of any County in said District may appoint an additional deputy clerk, whose salary shall not exceed $1600 per annum.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 18, 1921.

CHAPTER 330—H. F. No. 61.

An act to develop the agricultural resources of the State of Minnesota by land colonization within the state, providing certain privileges to soldier settlers, and creating a state colonization commission.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. State Colonization Commission created—Meetings—Officers—Employees—Report—Duties.—There is hereby created a commission to be known as the State Colonization Commission, hereafter referred to as the "commission," whose duty it shall be to administer the provisions of this act. Said commission shall consist of the Governor, who shall be the chairman thereof, the State Auditor and the Commissioner of Agriculture, all of whom shall be members of said commission during their terms of office and any two shall constitute a quorum. Said commission shall have its office in the Department of Agriculture office. It shall hold regular monthly meetings on such days as may be determined by the commission and may hold special meetings upon the call of the chairman; it shall keep a complete record of all its meetings, its accounts and the business it transacts and may prepare all necessary blanks and forms to be used in its proceedings and in the conduct of its business. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall act as secretary of the commission. He shall attend to and perform any and all detailed work relative to the commission and be the keeper of the seal.

The commission shall have power to employ such attorneys, appraisers, experts, assistants, clerks and other employees as it may deem necessary to conduct the business of said commission, whose salaries shall be fixed by said commission. Provided no expenditures shall be incurred in excess of the moneys provided by the provisions of this act.

The commission shall biannually make a full report of its operations to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House, who shall cause the same to be printed for the information of the members. This report shall constitute an accurate review of the work of the commission for the two years preceding the date of said report and shall contain a schedule of all applications for the flotation of bonds issued under the provisions of this act, a schedule of all approved bond issues, a schedule of all rejected bond issues and a statement of the receipts and disburse-
