CHAPTER 460—H. F. No. 893.

An act providing for the appointment of court reporters, fixing the salaries thereof, defining their duties and fixing their fees, in the eleventh judicial district of this state, and repealing all laws and parts of laws inconsistent herewith.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Court reporters in eleventh judicial district—Salaries.—That each judge of the District Court of the Eleventh (11th) Judicial District of the State of Minnesota may, by duplicate orders filed with the clerk of the district court and with the county auditor of the several counties included in such judicial district, appoint a competent stenographer as official reporter of the Court, to hold office during the pleasure of such judge, and to act as his secretary in all matters pertaining to his official duties. Such reporter shall give bond to the state in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2000 00), to be approved by the judge appointing him, conditioned for the faithful and impartial discharge of all his duties, which bond, with his oath of office shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in the county in which the judge making such appointment, resides.

Sec. 2. Duties of reporter.—Such reporter shall make a complete stenographic record of all testimony given and all proceedings had before the judge upon the trial of issues of fact, with or without a jury, or before any referee appointed by such judge. In so doing he shall take down all questions in the exact language thereof and all answers thereto, precisely as given by the witnesses or by the sworn interpreter. He shall also record verbatim all objections made and the grounds thereof as stated by counsel and all rulings thereon, all exceptions taken, all motions, orders and admissions made, and the charge to the jury. When directed so to do by the judge, he shall make a like record of any other matter of proceeding and shall read to such judge, or referee, any records made by him, or transcribe the same without charge, for any purpose in furtherance of justice, unless payment for such transcript shall be ordered by the court.

Sec. 3. Shall file record and furnish transcript.—As soon as the trial is ended the reporter shall file his stenographic record thereof with the clerk, or elsewhere if the judge shall so direct, and, upon request of any person interested, and payment or tender of his fees therefor, he shall furnish a transcript of such record in the words and figures represented by the characters used in making the same, and for that purpose he may take and retain such record so long as may be necessary, when it shall be returned to the files in the office of such clerk.

Sec. 4. Shall act as reporter for other than judge appointing.—Unless otherwise directed by the judge appointing him, the reporter shall serve as such in all matters heard by another judge when acting in place of the former and shall perform in relation to such matters all the duties required of him by law.

Sec. 5. Salary—Per diem in other counties.—The salary of each such reporter shall be Three Thousand Dollars ($3000.00) per annum in St. Louis county, which shall be paid in equal monthly installments in the same manner as the salary of county officials of said county is paid. In addition to said salary to be paid by St. Louis county, each reporter shall receive the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per day, for each and every day or part thereof for services while in attendance at sessions of court held in any other counties in said district; and such compensation shall be paid forthwith by the county auditor of each such county by warrant issued on the county treasurer thereof, on the filing by such reporter of a duly itemized and verified bill setting forth the number of days and dates of such service approved by any judge of said judicial district.

Sec. 6. Fees for transcript.—In addition to such salaries the reporter may charge for one transcript of his record ordered by any person other than the judge, fifteen cents per folio thereof and five cents per folio for each manifold or other copies thereof, when so ordered that it can be made with such original transcript.

Sec. 7. Expenses.—Each reporter shall be reimbursed for his actual and necessary traveling and hotel expenses in the performance of his official duties, which reimbursement shall be made forthwith by auditor's warrant issued on the county treasurer, upon filing with the county auditor of the county on behalf of which such expenses was incurred, of a duly itemized and verified statement by such reporter, of such expenses, approved by the judge of such court.

Sec. 8. Inconsistent acts repealed.—All laws and parts of laws inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 9. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 23, 1921.
