CHAPTER 68—S. F. No. 104.

An act to amend Sections 4970 and 4976, General Statutes of Minnesota 1913, relating to the State Board of Medical Examiners.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Board of medical examiners.—That sections 4970, General Statutes 1913, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“Section 4970. The state board of medical examiners shall consist of nine qualified resident physicians appointed by the governor for the term of three years and until his successor qualifies. No instructor or person financially interested in a medical school shall be appointed thereto; and it shall at all times include three homeopathic physicians. Vacancies shall be filled by like appointment for the unexpired term. The board shall elect from among their number a president, a secretary, and a treasurer, and shall adopt a seal. It shall hold examinations at the seat of government on the first Tuesday in January, April, June and October of each year, and at such other times as it shall deem best. The secretary shall keep a record of all its proceedings, including a register of all applicants for license, giving their ages, a description of their education in medicine, and the result of their examination. Said books and registers shall be prima facie evidence of all of the matters therein recorded.”

Sec. 2. Duty of secretary. Moneys how paid. Compensation, expenses, etc.—That section 4976, General Statutes Minnesota 1913 be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“Sec. 4976. The secretary of the board shall provide the board with blanks, books, certificates and such stationery as is necessary for the transaction of the business pertaining to its duties, and all money received by the secretary shall be paid into the state treasury quarterly. The secretary of the board shall give a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to the state of Minnesota for the faithful performance of his duties. The members of the board shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of ten dollars ($10) per day, to be fixed by the board for each day he is in actual attendance at regular and special meetings of said board, and the secretary and other members of the board shall receive all expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in attending such meetings. The secretary shall receive a salary of eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800) per annum and the stenographer to the secretary a salary of nine hundred dollars ($900) per annum, payable monthly; and the sum of eight hundred dollars ($800) per annum shall be allowed the secretary for blanks, stationery, printing and the maintenance of the office. The salary and expenses of the members of the board shall be paid quarterly and the compensation and expenses of the secretary semi-annually by the state treasurer on warrants signed by the president and secretary, drawn by the state auditor on the state treasurer."

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 10, 1921.

CHAPTER 69—S. F. No. 21.

An act entitled "An act legalizing and validating any and all bonds of any county in this state heretofore issued or which may hereafter be issued where the resolution calling the election for the purpose of voting upon the issuance of said bonds and the notice of such election and the ballot used in such election stated the question to be whether the bonds of such county not exceeding a certain specified sum should be issued under the provisions of Chapter 265 of the General Laws of Minnesota for 1919."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Bond proceeding legalized.—Whenever in any county in this state a bond election has been held under the provisions of Chapter 265 of the General Laws of Minnesota for the year 1919, and the resolution calling such election and the notice of such election and the ballot used at such election stated the question submitted to be whether the bonds of such county should be issued in an amount not exceeding a certain specified sum, and the certificate of the County canvassing board shows that said question carried at such election, all bonds heretofore issued and sold pursuant to such resolution, notice and ballot and pursuant to the election so held and all bonds which may be hereafter issued and sold by any county pursuant to such resolution, notice and ballot and pursuant to the election so held, are hereby in all things made valid and legal as against any objection that the use of the words "not exceeding" in the resolution calling such election and in the notice thereof and in
