CHAPTER 240—S. F. No. 328.

An act empowering any county now or hereafter having a population of more than 225,000 and which together with any city within such county has a joint court house and city hall, the expense of which is shared proportionately by such county and city, jointly with such city to rent or lease quarters outside of the court house and city hall for city and county offices, providing for apportionment of the expense thereof, and authorizing any such county to reimburse any such city for the county's proportionate share of any such rentals incurred by such city since January 1, 1925.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Counties may rent space outside of county court house.—Any county in this state which now has or hereafter may have a population of more than 225,000 inhabitants and which together with any city within such county has a joint court house and city hall, the expense of which is shared proportionately by such county and city, shall have the power and authority to rent or lease together with such city, quarters for city and county offices outside of said Court House and City Hall, and the rental charged for said quarters shall be paid by said county and city in the same proportion as the expenses of maintenance of the Court House and City Hall are paid by said city and county. Provided that no rate more than $1.50 per square foot per annum shall be paid or incurred, and for only such space actually used for office purposes, and no obligation for alterations, remodeling, or repairs shall, under any circumstances, be incurred.

Sec. 2. County may reimburse city.—Any such county is hereby authorized and empowered to reimburse any such city which has since January 1, 1925, rented or leased quarters for city and county offices outside of the Court House and City Hall, to an amount equal to the county's proportionate share of such rent computed upon the same basis as the expense of maintenance of the joint court house and city hall as apportioned between said county and city.

Sec. 3. Inconsistent acts repealed.—All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1925.

CHAPTER 241—S. F. No. 963.

An act to amend Section 7893, General Statutes 1923, relating to corporations and providing for the adoption and filing of articles of incorporation of certain social and charitable corporations, and for the holding of annual meetings of such corporations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Incorporation of social and charitable corporations.—That section 7893, General Statutes 1923, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

"7893. They shall adopt and sign a certificate containing :

1. Its name, its general purpose and plan of operation, and its location.

2. The terms of admission to membership, the amount of monthly, quarterly, or yearly contributions required of its members.

3. If there be capital stock, the number of shares, and the amount of each share.

4. The officers of the corporation or society, with time and place of electing or appointing the same, the number of trustees, directors, or managers, if any, who are to conduct the transactions of the society during the first year; provided, that societies for the promotion of temperance or social or moral reform may hold their annual meetings for the election of officers and the transaction of other business at such time and place in the state as a majority of the members thereof may by vote determine; and any such existing society may hold its annual meetings at any time or place so determined.

Said certificate shall be acknowledged and filed with the secretary of state and recorded with the register of deeds in the county where the corporation is located. Any such corporation may amend its certificate as provided in the case of other corporations, but the amendment need not be published.

Provided, corporations organized for the promotion of the tenets of any religion or for the propagation of the gospel may hold their annual meetings at such time and place within or without the state as a majority of the trustees, directors or managers thereof may by vote determine."
