CHAPTER 241—S. F. No. 963.

An act to amend Section 7893, General Statutes 1923, relating to corporations and providing for the adoption and filing of articles of incorporation of certain social and charitable corporations, and for the holding of annual meetings of such corporations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Incorporation of social and charitable corporations.—That section 7893, General Statutes 1923, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

"7893. They shall adopt and sign a certificate containing :

1. Its name, its general purpose and plan of operation, and its location.

2. The terms of admission to membership, the amount of monthly, quarterly, or yearly contributions required of its members.

3. If there be capital stock, the number of shares, and the amount of each share.

4. The officers of the corporation or society, with time and place of electing or appointing the same, the number of trustees, directors, or managers, if any, who are to conduct the transactions of the society during the first year; provided, that societies for the promotion of temperance or social or moral reform may hold their annual meetings for the election of officers and the transaction of other business at such time and place in the state as a majority of the members thereof may by vote determine; and any such existing society may hold its annual meetings at any time or place so determined.

Said certificate shall be acknowledged and filed with the secretary of state and recorded with the register of deeds in the county where the corporation is located. Any such corporation may amend its certificate as provided in the case of other corporations, but the amendment need not be published.

Provided, corporations organized for the promotion of the tenets of any religion or for the propagation of the gospel may hold their annual meetings at such time and place within or without the state as a majority of the trustees, directors or managers thereof may by vote determine."
