CHAPTER 338—S. F. No. 435.

An act providing for the transfer, in certain cases, of funds collected by certain counties, from taxes levied by such counties, for the construction and maintenance of a joint sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, to the county revenue fund of such counties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Transfer of sanatorium funds.—In all cases where heretofore, under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 500, General Laws of 1913, and the various acts amendatory thereof, the county boards of other counties in this state, have by joint resolution of such county boards agreed and determined to construct and maintain a joint sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis and thereafter any such county has levied and collected taxes for the construction and maintenance of such joint sanatorium, and thereafter and before the site or location of such sanatorium has been fixed and determined, and such county has by a resolution of its county board duly pass, recinded, so far as such county is concerned, the aforesaid resolution for the construction and maintenance of such sanatorium and has withdrawn from said agreement and from the group of counties formed thereby, the taxes so levied and collected, and which may hereafter be collected from any such levy, are hereby transferred from such construction and maintenance funds to the county revenue fund of such county and may be used for any and all county purposes, which are chargeable to such county revenue fund.
