CHAPTER 366—S. F. No. 1149.

An act prohibiting any town board or other public authority from issuing any license or permit to operate any itinerant carnival, street show, street fair, side show, circus, or any similar enterprise, within one mile of the corporate limits of any city of the fourth class without the consent thereto of the council or other governing body of such city; and prohibiting such operation of such enterprises without such license; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. License not to be granted for street shows or carnivals.—No town board or other public authority shall hereafter issue any license or permit or make any other grant of authority permitting the operation or carrying on of any itinerant carnival, street show, street fair, side show, circus, or any similar enterprise, within one mile of the corporate limits of any city of the fourth class in this state, without having first obtained in writing the consent thereto of the council or other governing body of such city.

Sec. 2. Permits to be null and void.—Any license, permit or other grant of authority issued or made in violation of the provisions of this act shall be absolutely null and void.

Sec. 3. Street shows and carnivals prohibited.—No person, firm, co-partnership, corporation or association of any nature or kind shall operate or attempt to operate or carry on any itinerant carnival, street show, street fair, sideshow, circus, or any similar enterprise, within one mile of the corporate limits of any city of the fourth class in this state without license or permit so to do lawfully granted under the restrictions provided in this act.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and any such enterprise operated without license or permit as herein prescribed is hereby declared to be a public nuisance.

Sec. 4. Definition.—An itinerant carnival, street show, street fair, side show, circus, or other similar enterprise, within the meaning of this act, is any itinerant carnival, street show, street fair, side show, circus, or other similar enterprise, which is held, operated or carried on in the open or indoors or upon or within any public or private ground, at which there congregates and assembles, with or without the payment of an admission fee, a promiscuous gathering of people as spectators or otherwise.

Sec. 5. Application.—Nothing in this act shall be construed as in any way abrogating or detracting from the provisions of Chapter 428, Session Laws for 1923, but said act shall be and remain in full force and effect.

Approved April 24, 1925.

CHAPTER 367—S. F. No. 1214.

An act providing for the payment of road labor in counties now or hereafter having a population of 400,000 or over.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Payment for road labor in certain counties.—In any county of this state now or hereafter having a population of 400,000 or over, the county board may provide that all claims for labor, whether skilled or unskilled, employed by such county in any capacity in connection with the construction or maintenance of roads therein, and the claims of persons who have furnished tractors, trucks, teams, wagons, plows or scrapers for the performance of such work, may be paid in the following manner:

The foreman in charge of each crew shall transmit daily to the county auditor a report showing the name of each person working under his supervision, the number of hours and character or kind of work performed by each, together with the rate of pay of each. From these cards the county auditor shall make up a semi-monthly payroll for each crew in such form as may be approved by the public examiner, which payroll shall be verified by the foreman from whose daily reports the same shall have been compiled. These payrolls shall then be presented to the county board for allowance or disallowance. On the allowance of a payroll by the county board, the county auditor shall forthwith issue to the several claimants whose names appear therein, his warrants in payment of their respective claims.

Sec. 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Approved April 24, 1925.
