CHAPTER 373—S. F. No. 433.

An act authorizing the detachment of territory from one village and annexation of said territory to another village in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Transfer of territory from one village to another.—Whenever any two villages having a population of less than fifteen hundred each as determined from the last State or Federal census have boundary lines adjacent or contiguous for two miles or more, any unplatted territory of one village, which is more remote from the platted portion thereof than from the platted portion of the other village, and which has more natural connection and community of interest with such other village, may be detached from the village wherein said territory is then situated (if the per capita assessed valuation of property in that village, as determined from the last federal or state census and the last assessment, is more than five times that of the other village) and annexed to the other village in the following manner:

Sec. 2. Action on petition or by governing body.—The governing body of either village may, upon its own motion, on the adoption of a resolution to that effect by the Village Council, or upon the written petition of twenty-five (25) of its resident voters voting at the last general village election, petition and apply to the Board of County Commissioners of the county within which said villages are situated for such detachment and annexation of territory, which shall definitely and concisely describe the boundaries and area of the territory then embraced in each of said villages and shall definitely and concisely describe the boundary and area of the territory sought to be detached from one village and annexed to the
