CHAPTER 418—S. F. No. 924.

An act to amend Section 4371, General Statutes, 1923, relating to the placing of headstones at the graves of soldiers, sailors and marines and persons not soldiers who actually served in this state in the Indian War of 1862, to the placing of inscriptions on such headstones, and to the payment of the cost thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Monuments for soldiers and sailors.—That Section 4371, General Statutes, 1923, be and the same hereby is amended so to read as follows:

"4371. A headstone shall be placed at the grave of every such person, bearing his name, and, if ascertainable, the date of his birth and death, and the designation of the organization to which he belonged or in which he served. The cost of such headstone shall not exceed fifteen dollars, finished and in place. It shall not be furnished by the state until the county board shall have applied unsuccessfully to the general government therefor. When the government furnishes such stone, without a base, the board, at a cost to the state of not more than seven dollars and fifty cents, shall cause the same to be properly placed. When such headstone heretofore has been furnished and erected other than by the state or the federal government and does not bear the designation of the organization to which such person belonged or in which he served, upon written request of the next of kin of such person or of the state commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, the board, at a cost to the state of not more than seven dollars and fifty cents, shall cause to be graven thereon the designation of the organization to which such person belonged or in which he served."
